Re: TAL Properties of Pomona, LLC v. Village of Poma
Case No. 7:19-cv-06838 (VB)

Dear Judge Briccetti:

Our office was retained yesterday as counsel for plaintiffs in this action. We are filing, concurrently with this letter, a Consent to Change Attorney evidencing the substitution of counsel. We write to request a final two-week extension of plaintiffs' time to file an Amended Complaint (which is currently due March 9) and related response dates. The revised schedule we request is as follows:

March 23, 2020: Amended Complaint

April 22, 2020: Defendants' answer or motion to dismiss

May 22, 2020: Plaintiffs' opposition to defendants' motion, if any

June 5, 2020: Defendants' reply in support of motion, if any

We telephoned and emailed defendants' counsel yesterday, but as of this filing have not received their position. This is plaintiffs' third request for an extension of time to file the Amended Complaint, and the Court granted the prior two requests. However, as our firm was only retained yesterday, we seek this brief extension so that we have an adequate opportunity to consult with our client and prepare the Amended Complaint.

Plaintiffs will not make any further request for an extension of time to file an Amended Complaint. We thank the Court for its consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,
